Mysuru-Bengaluru train travel time to be cut by 20 minutes

Train speed to increase; travel time to reduce from August 15

New tracks are being laid with the help of Plasser Quick Relaying System (PQRS) machines on the Mysuru-Pandavapura stretch this morning. PQRS is a process wherein old rail along with sleepers is removed and is replaced by a new rail panel.

Mysuru, Aug.5 (MTY&BCT)- Come August 15, the speed of some trains that run between Mysuru and Bengaluru will increase, thereby decreasing the travel time from 5 minutes to 20 minutes.

By speeding up these trains, the journey time between Mysuru and Bengaluru will be reduced to less than 2 hours and 30 minutes. At present, it takes almost three hours for an Express train to reach Bengaluru from Mysuru.

Works on track changing to facilitate the increase in speed is going on in full swing and 80 percent of the works have been completed.

A senior Railway official told Star of Mysore this morning that the track changing work was underway in a war-footing and today, the works were on at Pandavapura section. "We are doing the project in such a way that the regular train travel is not disrupted," he said.

The official said that at present, 52 kilograms of steel is used for one metre of the railway track. This is being changed to 60 kilograms per metre. "The new track is capable of withstanding more weight and has a lot of grip to support a train even in great speed. Train derailment on such tracks is rare as there is a firm grip while the train is in motion," he added.

Loads of new tracks have already arrived on the Mysuru-Bengaluru stretch and the works are on, on the Mysuru-Pandavapura stretch. The old tracks are being replaced in a mechanised way with less scope for human intervention, the official said.

The tracks are being laid with the help of two Plasser Quick Relaying System (PQRS) machines. PQRS is a process wherein old rail along with sleepers is removed and is replaced by a completely new rail panel with the help of Track Laying Equipment.

Florists run from pillar to post for a place to do business

Mysuru, Aug.5 (MTY&BCT)- Florists on Valmiki Road, who have been asked by the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) to shift to Cheluvamba Park, are in a quandary as residents of the area have opposed to their presence there. The florists can neither open their shops on Valmiki Road now nor can they shift to an alternative place. Facing severe business loss, they have appealed to the MCC to find a suitable place.

Florists made to run-around for a suitable place reminds us of the indecisiveness on the part of the MCC as it was demonstrated years ago when vegetable vendors were shifted from Dufferin Clock Tower to Palace office premises and then to M.G. Road and when pick-up transport vehicles were shifted to Nanjangud Road from the city centre.

The Valmiki Road florist shops that have been closed. When a few florists came to open their stalls this morning, they were prevented from doing so by the MCC officials.

The florists had their shops opposite the CFTRI residential quarters on the Valmiki Road since the last 15 years. However, with the Maharani's Commerce and Management College opening up at Paduvarahalli (Vinayakanagar), the Principal of the institution wanted their shops evicted.

Following the complaint from the Principal, the MCC swung into action and evicted all of the florists last week leaving the florists stranded with no place to go. Later, the MCC asked them to shift.

Initially, the MCC told the florists that they could set up shop on vacant land close to the Railway line near Kalamandira but the permission was denied by the South Western Railway as it is Railway property. Later, the MCC told them to shift to Cheluvamba Park in Vontikoppal, only to face stiff opposition from the residents.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Officials in Delhi wish to fell about 17,000 fully grown trees in some parts of the city to make space for building housing colonies. And to "pacify" people who object to this tree destruction, they say that for every tree that will be felled, they will plant 10 saplings. Interesting — the Minister knows it; the National Building Construction Corporation (NBCC) knows it and we all known it — that this is a stupid answer. "What you lose today, I will make up" (20 years from now? and if the saplings survive?). And this is not just in Delhi. Government and city planners in several other States do the same. This attitude shows not just ignorance but arrogance, disregard for trees and their value. It is time planners wake up and understand the value — economic, ecological, health-related and sociological — that trees offer.

Value of a tree: Way back in 1979, Dr. T.M. Das of Calcutta University estimated that the monetary value of a tree, during a life span of 50 years, amounted to about $2,00,000 (at 1979 rates). This was based on the amount of oxygen it produces, the fruit or the biomass and the timber it offers when felled and so on.

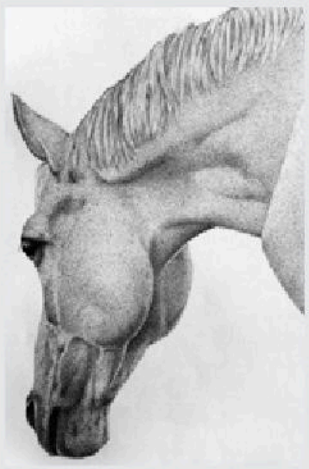
Online store auctions man to recover debt

Moscow: A 21-year-old entrepreneur after failing to deliver on the contract he had signed with Pich Shop, a Russian online gift store, agreed to be auctioned off to the highest bidder and marry a complete stranger for at least one year, in order to avoid being sued.

A strange listing showed up on PichShop.ru – a young man named Aleksandr Kramarenko available for marriage, with a 1 year warranty. The "product" was listed as "in stock" and featured a detailed description – including age, height, weight, zodiac sign and interests – and photos (both dressed and topless). The minimum bid was set at 10,000 rubles.

Bids of around 300,000 rubles ($5,000) were got and the store was expecting even higher ones as the deadline approached.

Drawings with thousands of tiny dots



Malmo: Julia Koceva, a 23-year-old Swedish artist has taken the internet by storm with her impressive drawings created using an old technique known as stippling – creating pattern and applying varying degrees of solidity or shading to it by using small dots.

A criminologist by day, Koceva spends her nights working on her amazing drawings. She takes between 40 and 100 hours to finish a piece, painstakingly applying tiny black dots to a large piece of paper, using nothing but a ballpoint pen.

Hill climbers' ordeal on Ashada Fridays

Sir,

As private vehicles are prohibited on Chamundi Hill Road on Ashada Fridays, half of the total devotees have now started to use the hill steps to reach the temple.

The city administration should deploy monitoring authority for safe flow of thousands of step climbers. After 11 am, it was very hard to move up and down the stairs. Half the way, it was upward rush, then it starts heavy rush in the downward way.

At many places, the climbing devotees were stranded for long. Many parents with their little children found it very hard to move. Old people were also seen using this steps-way.

When we reached the temple atop, we observed flocks of Police personnel for every 200-300 ft. distance to monitor the people in queue to visit the temple. Not even a single Police personnel was deployed to monitor the flow of devotees in the step-way.

In future, the authorities may have to plan to construct a median along the steps-way for smooth upward and downward movement of people and thereby avoid any stampede.

Jumbo squad getting ready for this year's Dasara festival

- List of 15 elephants ready; to be finalised in a day or two
- Drona, Dhananjaya in place of Bheema and Krishna
- 60-year-old Balarama is standby Howdah elephant

The bonding between Bheema (left) and Balarama was there for everyone to see during 2017 Dasara. This year, however, Bheema has been ruled out for Dasara as he is too young and Balarama will be the standby Howdah elephant.

Mysuru, Aug.5 (MTY&KS)- With Dasara festivities closing in, the Forest Department has decided to introduce two new elephants into the squad of 12 elephants for which the Department has prepared a list of 15 elephants for this year's grand finale the 'Jumboo Savari.'

This year's Dasara festivities will be held from Oct.10 to 19 and the Forest Department, after conducting health check-up of elephants at various elephant camps, have prepared a list of 15 elephants out of which 12 elephants would take part.

Inspection: About 15 days back, DCF Sidramappa Chalkapure and Veterinarian Dr. D.N. Nagaraju visited Balle, Bandipur, K. Gudi, Thitimathi, Mathigodu, Dubare and other elephant camps and inspected the elephants.

They checked the health conditions, stamina, age, behaviour and the experience of elephants in participating in Dasara festivities among others. As the elephants were found fit to take part in the festivities, a list of 15 elephants has been prepared.

List to be finalised in Selection Committee Meeting: Out the list of 15 elephants which has been prepared, only 12 elephants would take part in the festivities and the list of participating 12 elephants would be finalised at the Elephants Selection Committee meeting in a day or two.

New faces: Out of the list of 15 elephants, which had been prepared to select 12 elephants, the Forest Department, in its bid to provide responsibilities to new elephants in future, has decided to introduce 37-year-old Drona from Mathigodu Elephant Camp and 37-year-old Dhananjaya from Dubare Elephant Camp, which will be participating in this year's Dasara festivities.

Meanwhile, it is learnt that 60-year-old Balarama, which has good experience in participating in the festivities apart from being well-built, has been named as the standby Howdah-elephant in place of 58-year-old Arjuna, who is the carrier of the 750-kg Golden Howdah called as 'Chinnada Ambari' during the Jamboo Savari, the grand finale of Mysuru Dasara.

Provide water connections abandoned by JUSCO: MLA

Mysuru, Aug. 5 (SBD&BCT)- MLA S.A. Ramdas has asked the officers from the MCC to complete the water connection works abandoned in the past and asphalt the roads that have been dug up to provide water connections within 15 days at Ward Number 55, Krishnaraja Assembly segment.

Inspecting the areas, the MLA directed the officers to complete the water connection projects that have been abandoned by Jamshedpur Utilities and Services Company, (JUSCO) a wholly-owned subsidiary of Tata Steel.

It may be recalled here that JUSCO had bagged a Rs. 152-crore six-year performance-based water management contract for Mysuru. It was billed as one of the country's largest water supply projects in the public-private partnership model. JUSCO had entered into a tripartite agreement with Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) and Karnataka Urban Water Supply and Drainage Board (KUWSDB).

However, the JUSCO project to supply water 24x7 across the city reached only a fraction of the city and later, the MCC cancelled the contract.

Asking the MCC officers to take up the pending JUSCO water works, the MLA directed the officers to provide water connections to every house in the locality. He asked them to have regular timings to supply water to houses as a lot of residents are inconvenienced due to irregular timings of supplying water.

On the problems of water-logging on the roads, the MLA asked the officers to clean up and desilt clogged drains and wherever necessary build 'L' 'U' shaped drains so that they can easily carry rainwater. Frowning on the lack of maintenance of waste dumps where waste is scattered all over with stray cows and dogs dominating the place, Ramdas asked the officers to clear the dumps immediately.

On the residents' suggestion to widen the Chamundipuram-Vidyaranyapuram Main Road, he said that he will discuss the issue with the officers concerned.

Navikotsava to conclude today

'Spread of Kannada across globe is laudable'

Mysuru District in-Charge Minister G.T. Devegwoda is seen lighting the lamp to mark the inauguration of 'Navikotsava' at Kalamandira in city yesterday as others look on.

Mysuru, Aug.5 (YDS&US)- Navikotsava-2018, organised by Navika (Naavu Vishwa Kannadigaru), a forum of Non-Resident Indians (NRIs) of Karnataka, commenced last evening at Kalamandira here.

Inaugurating the programme, District in-Charge Minister G.T. Devegwoda lauded the NRIs in spreading Kannada across the globe regretting that Kannadigas were diminishing in the State capital of Bengaluru with Kannada getting into obscurity.

Speaking on the occasion, Kannada Development Authority (KDA) Chairman S.G. Siddaramaiah opined that usage of a language would help its growth. He advised people of the State not to have inferiority complex on Kannada language.

Addressing the gathering, Nadoja and Nityotsava poet Prof. K.S. Nissar Ahmed contended that children of Kannadiga NRIs were growing in the relevant ambience abroad obviously ignorant of their cultural roots in India who should be made aware of that.

Devegowda released a keyboard developed by Scientist Guruprasad, an NRI from USA, which would help to learn Kannada and other Indian languages.

A book of eight volumes written by another NRI Shivanagowda for easy learning of Kannada by children abroad was released by Siddaramaiah.

Former KDA Chairman Mukhyamantri Chandru, Thespian late Rajkumar's daughter Lakshmi, Navika President Suresh Ramachandra, Convenor Prakash Banavara and others were present.

The non-Resident Kannadigas from United States of America and other parts of the world presented various cultural programmes at Kalamandira as part of the two-day 'Navikotsava' that began yesterday.

Mysuru, Aug.5 (MTY&DM)- The carcass of a male leopard was found on the bank of Kabini backwaters near Beechanahalli in H.D. Kote taluk yesterday.

Villagers, who found the carcass lying on the backwater bank, informed the Forest Department officials, who rushed to the spot.

Mysuru, a look at its past...

The Lord and the Legends

By Gouri Satya, Sr.Journalist

Lakshmiramanaswamy Temple

Raja Wadiyar Statue in the cell

Raja Wadiyar Statue

We often visit the Mysore Palace to admire its beauty or its illumination. Or, we visit the temples built around it, pray and return home. But we rarely notice some interesting carvings there or the murals in the two temples — the Prasanna Krishnaswamy Temple and the Shwetha Varahaswamy Temple.

One such historic temple where some interesting features are worth seeing is the Lakshmiramanaswamy Temple. It occupies a unique place in the history of Mysore and the Maharajas. The chief deity in the sanctum sanctorum is Lakshmiramana, a small idol in the form of Vishnu. He is holding a discus and a conch.

Located on the western side of the Palace, this temple is one of the oldest temples in Mysuru. It has a tall tower, which was renovated by Krishnaraja Wadiyar III in November, 1851. An inscription mentions a grant to the temple by an order of the King Narasa Nayaka, father of the famous Vijayanagar emperor, Krishnadevaraya, in 1499. It was in this temple that the 'Pattabhiseka' of the five-year-old Krishnaraja Wadiyar III took place on June 30, 1799.

The cell to the right has the figure of Lakshmiramana's consort, Lakshmi, the Goddess of the temple. There is also a beautiful figure of Venugopala, which is slightly bigger. Venugopala is said to have been a special object of worship before the Prasanna Krishnaswamy Temple was built near the Lakshmiramanaswamy Temple in 1829 by Krishnaraja Wadiyar III. There is a handsome Mantapa on the rear side of the Lakshmiramanaswamy temple built by Kanteerava Narasaraja Wadiyar (1638-1659), who was famous as 'Ranadhira'.

As we enter from the main doorway, we see a small figure of about two feet on the left side. It is the statue of Raja Wadiyar. He is standing with folded hands, in Anjali Mudra. A powerful ruler, Raja Wadiyar finds a prominent place in the history of Mysore. Chief of small domain, he acquired Srirangapatna from Sriranga-raya, the Vijayanagar representative stationed in the regional capital, made it his capital, and celebrated the first historic Dasara in 1610, after ascending the newly-acquired throne. The Dasara we celebrate now in Mysuru owes its origin to this great ruler, who ruled from 1578 to 1617 from Srirangapatna.

One may wonder why the statue of Raja Wadiyar in the Bhakta Vigraha posture in this temple? Two miracles related to him are associated with this temple's chief deity and they are worth recalling. The first was an attempt on his life during his early reign.

Virarajaiya, the chief of Karugahalli, had encroached the boundaries of Mysuru up to the Chamundi Hill. He envied Raja Wadiyar's successes. When Raja Wadiyar was going to Nanjangud for the Rathotsava of Srikanteswaraswamy, arrogant Virarajaiya, who was a kinsman of Raja Wadiyar, came in procession from Thandya with all fanfare, on the same direction. Provoked by his behaviour, the men accompanying Raja Wadiyar pushed away the palanquin in which Virarajaiya was seated at sword point. At this juncture, Raja Wadiyar arrived on the scene and prevented any further humiliation to him.

After facing this mortification, Virarajaiya plotted to end the life of Raja Wadiyar. Accordingly, he took the priest of Lakshmiramanaswamy, Srinivasaiya, into confidence by bribing him and asked him to mix poison in Thirtha and offer it to Raja Wadiyar, who was visiting the temple daily to worship Lakshmiramana. Seeing the hands of Srinivasaiya shivering while offering the sacred water, Raja Wadiyar questioned him asking him to tell the truth, promising him protection. Coming to know the truth, with the Thirtha in his palm, Raja Wadiyar asked Srinivasaiya whether he had offered it as poison or Thirtha, Srinivasaiya replied that he had offered it as sacred Thirtha. The pious ruler drank the sacred water unhesitatingly after offering a prayer to the Lord. The poison particles mixed in the Thirtha remained in his palm, making the spot black.

Raja Wadiyar sent his soldiers to Karugahalli to apprehend Virarajaiya. When they brought him to Mysuru, Raja Wadiyar got his ears and nose cut off, and presented all the wealth confiscated from his treasury to Goddess Chamundeswari. He also got the Karugahalli fort demolished and the lands sown with castor seeds. As a punishment, Srinivasaiya was transferred to the Gopalakrishnaswamy temple in Kannambadi (Krishna Raja Sagar), which went under waters when the KRS dam was constructed.

As an offering to Lakshmiramana for saving his life from the treacherous act of Virarajaiya, Raja Wadiyar built the Mahadwara to the temple with the tall Gopura, embellishing it with golden finials.

A brief mention of this incident may be seen inscribed on the stone beam at the temple entrance.

The other miracle relates to a Brahmin who got back his eye-sight after approaching Raja Wadiyar.

According to this legend similarly described in the Annals of the Mysore Royal Family, a Brahmin of Tanjore by name Venkatesaiya had lost his eye-sight. A totally blind Venkatesaiya came to Tirupathi and prayed to Lord Venkateswara, saying if He failed to restore his eye-sight and make him see the Rathotsava the following day, he would sacrifice his life to the God. The next day to his surprise his blindness had been cured, but only of one eye. While witnessing the car festival, he prayed again pleading with the Lord to bless him with sight in the other so that he can see Him properly.

In his dream the next day, Lord Venkateswara directed him to go to Mysuru and approach Raja Wadiyar. Accordingly, he came to Mysuru and met the Raja, who took him to Lakshmiramanaswamy temple and pleaded with Lord Lakshmiramana to restore the eye-sight of the pious Venkatesaiya. Responding to his prayer, the Lord blessed the Brahmin the power in the other eye also. This miracle is said to have happened in 1599.

These miracles and the Bhakta Vigraha of Raja Wadiyar gives the temple a special place among the temples around the Palace.

The temple is being renovated, along with other temples within the Palace fort. The tower has regained its pristine beauty after its renovation.

He sells flowers
in the name of Wadiyar

Ramu, a flower vendor, sells flowers near 'Gumchi' close to the Mysuru Central Jail. Photo below shows Pramoda Devi Wadiyar paying her respects to the portrait of Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar.

Ramu

Mysuru, Aug.5 (LNY&BCT)- While there are hundreds of Mysureans who have still kept Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar close to their hearts as he used to mingle with lay people, despite his royal stature, here is a common man who has gone a step ahead and given a divine status to the late Scion of Mysore royal family.

Meet Ramu, a flower vendor, who starts his day (rather every day) by garlanding the photo of Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar by the side of the road. Only after praying to his 'idol,' Ramu starts selling flowers. And as if he has constant blessings of the Wadiyar, he does well in business too and is able to lead a comfortable life along with his family.

Ramu sells flowers on Pulikeshi Road near Mysore Central Jail at the junction where there are two giant pillars on both sides of the road. Old-timers call the place 'Gumchi.'

Ramu sits on a steel chair next to the pillar on the footpath with flowers on a small table. On the pillar, he has placed a big portrait of Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar in complete royal attire and seated on the Golden Throne.

Every day Ramu comes in the morning with two to three varieties of flowers like Jasmine, Sughanda Raja and Kanakambara and sets up his make-shift stall.

Before starting his business with the usual 'boni', he makes sure that he garlands the portrait with a small string of jasmine. "I have been doing this ever since Wadiyar left us on Dec.10, 2013. It is an irreparable loss to entire Mysuru. The entire Wadiyar family starting from the earlier rulers centuries ago is a gift to the land," he said.

With a sense of pride he narrated, Pramoda Devi Wadiyar, the widow of Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar, visited him three to four times. "She came here along with her son Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar and daughter-in-law Trishikha Kumari Wadiyar and performed puja to Wadiyar's portrait. Every time her vehicle passes through this road, 'Pramodamma' makes it a point to look at her husband's portrait and at me," he said.

As Star of Mysore was in conversation with Ramu, a red Audi SUV stopped by Ramu's makeshift stall and the lady bought a few metres of jasmine strings and paid Ramu. Meanwhile, Ramu's wife, along with her little grandson, brought freshly-strung jasmine buds (Mallige moggu) and kept them for sale. Soon, a couple of more vehicles stopped by and Ramu sold more of those fragrant jasmine strings.

Though it is a daily routine for Ramu, who says that his entire family depends on the income generated out of selling flowers, what stands out is his reverence for the late Wadiyar.

BJP lost Assembly polls due to confusion within party: BSY

State BJP President and Opposition leader B.S. Yeddyurappa felicitating former Karnataka Pradesh Hotel Owners Association President M. Rajendra, upon his appointment as the State BJP Secretary, during the city BJP Executive Committee Meet held at a private hotel in city this morning as others look on.

Mysuru, Aug.5 (MTY&DM)- Maintaining that the BJP lost the Assembly polls by a whisker due to some internal confusions here and there, State BJP President and Opposition leader B.S. Yeddyurappa has called upon the party workers not to get disheartened over Assembly poll loss and work hard for ensuring victory in maximum number of seats in the forthcoming Lok Sabha polls.

Speaking at the city BJP Executive Committee Meet at a private hotel here this morning, Yeddyurappa said that the party has set a target of winning over 20 Lok Sabha seats from the State.

Underlining the role of party workers in organising the party from the grassroots level, he said that he would tour 14-15 districts starting from Aug.9 and campaign for the party in the Local Body polls scheduled for Aug.29.

Asking the party workers to gear up for the forthcoming MCC polls, Yeddyurappa said that the party workers should ensure that the next Mayor and Deputy Mayor is from the BJP, by winning more than 60 percent of the seats.

Pointing out that he was very much impressed about MP Pratap Simha's achievements over the past four-and-a-half years, BSY said that the MP has played a crucial role in bringing Rs.700 crore grant for Mysore Airport development, Rs.7,000 crore for 10-laning of Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway and Rs.750 crore for the establishment of a Satellite Railway Station at Naganahalli, among many such other projects aimed at improving infrastructure.

Lashing out at the JD(S)-Congress coalition Government, Yeddyurappa said that it was a travesty of justice that a party which secured 38 seats came to power, while the BJP which won 104 seats had to sit in the Opposition.

Accusing the State coalition Government of non-performance, he alleged that the Government's farm loan waiver remained only on paper, while in reality the Government had not taken RBI approval which was mandatory, for initiating the process.

Lashing out at the Opposition parties for moving a no-confidence motion against PM Modi for no concrete reason, Yeddyurappa claimed that the Opposition parties were worried over Modi's rising popularity, as the entire world is looking at India for its unprecedented growth after Modi came to power.

He reiterated his appeal to the party workers to gear themselves up for the Local Body polls and next year's Lok Sabha polls and ensure a thumping victory for PM Modi.

On the occasion, former Karnataka Pradesh Hotel Owners Association President M. Rajendra was felicitated upon his appointment as State BJP Secretary.

MP Pratap Simha, MLAs L. Nagendra and S.A. Ramdas, City BJP President Dr. B.H. Manjunath, State BJP Secretary M. Rajendra, District President Kote M. Shivanna, Corporators Nandeesh Preetham and M.V. Ramprasad, leaders Sandesh Swamy, B.P. Manjunath, H.V. Rajeev, L.R. Mahadevaswamy, Yashaswini Somashekar and others were present.

Yeddyurappa later left for Suttur Mutt at the foot of Chamundi Hill to take part in Basava Jayanti celebrations.

Decomposed bodies of lovers found in KRS backwaters

Mysuru, Aug.5 (SBD&KS)- The bodies of lovers, who had committed suicide, was found near the new bridge at Sagarakatte in KRS backwaters on Saturday evening.

The deceased have been identified as Ashoka (27), son of Rangaiah and an employee of a private factory and Kavyashree (22), daughter of Sannamogaiah and a B.Com student. Both were the residents of Bherya village in K.R. Nagar taluk. It is learnt that both had gone missing a couple of days ago.

Some members of the public, who saw the bodies floating near the bridge, immediately informed the jurisdictional Yelwal Police following which Yelwal Sub-Inspector Mudduмahadeva and staff rushed to the spot, fished out the bodies, conducted mahazar and shifted the bodies to MMC&RI mortuary for post-mortem.

The bodies were found hugging and the two may have tied a veil around their waists before jumping into the river, according to the Police, who fished out the bodies which were bloated and faces beyond recognition.

The bodies were shifted to MMC&RI mortuary after the post-mortem was conducted.

Yelwal Police, who have registered a case in this regard, are investigating.

Florists run from pillar to post

So much so that the residents told the florists that they would face dire consequences if they did not vacate their shops. Now the florists are back to square one. This morning, the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Zonal officers did not permit the vendors to open their stalls on the Valmiki Road.

"We are a group of eight florists who have been doing business here. All politicians, Chief Minister, Ministers and officers need flowers that we supply. But unfortunately, we are made to run from one place to another for a suitable place," said a florist.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, florists said that the MCC and florists identified a couple of places near Institution of Engineers-India (IEI) on JLB Road and Ursu Boarding School. These places are not suitable as there is no space for setting up shops and parking, they said.

"There is a suitable place in front of Leela Chennaiah Choultry behind the CFTRI Quarters that borders a forest area. The footpath is wide enough and the place is far from Maharani's College and people can easily identify the new place. If the MCC grants us this place, it will be helpful," one of the vendors said.

Vendors said that the MCC officers have told them not to do business till an alternative place is identified. "We have not been able to run business for the past 15 days and we have incurred huge losses. We do not know any other profession and our families are dependent on the income from the sale of flowers. We are staring at a bleak future," he said.

Considering their plight, Chamaraja MLA L. Nagendra has assured them that he would discuss with Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) Commissioner to provide space near Dhobi Ghat at Saraswathipuram for the florists to set up shop, another vendor said.

Excel Waste Treatment Plant to see greener pastures soon

MLA S.A. Ramdas launches new facility

Mysuru, Aug.5 (RKB&US)- The controversial Excel Waste Treatment Plant in Vidyaranyapuram, which has been inviting the wrath of local residents, will soon be turned into a profitable venture to generate power by the processed waste. A new technique of processing the solid waste was launched by MLA S.A. Ramdas at the Plant this morning.

The Plant has been receiving about 450 tonnes of solid waste per day as against the capacity of 150 to 200 tonnes. The excess waste will henceforth be dumped in a huge pit of 1400 m^3 size and after loading sufficient quantity, mud will be loaded on that over which saplings would be planted. The whole thing will be allowed to rest for enough time to complete composting of the waste material to a bio-fuel which will be a raw material for power generation.

MCC will invite global tenders for establishing the power generation unit, for which all the clearances have been procured from the Central Pollution Control Board and Health Ministry, explained Ramdas adding that he would visit Delhi on Aug.7 for a meeting with officials concerned.

MCC Health Officer Dr. Ramachandra, Superintending Engineer Suresh Babu, Environmental Engineer Poornima and Junior Engineer Ranjita were present.

'No difference between Jinnah followers and separate Lingayat religion seekers'

Mysuru, Aug.5 (SPN&DM)- Maintaining that there is no difference between Pakistan Founder Mohammad Ali Jinnah's followers and former IAS officer S.M. Jamdar, who is spearheading the agitation seeking separate Lingayat religion tag, writer and Maharani Cluster University Special Officer Prof. Ravindra Reshme has said that Jinnah partitioned the nation only for the sake of power.

He was speaking at a seminar on the topic current societal status of Veerashaiva Lingayat community held as part of the two-day Basava Jayanti celebrations jointly organised by Akhila Bharata Veerashaiva Mahasabha, Veerashaiva Lingayata Associations & Organisations and Basava Balagagala Okkuta, Mysuru, at Suttur Mutt premises at the foot of Chamundi Hill yesterday.

Prof. Ravindra Reshme S.M. Jamdar

Pointing out Mahatma Gandhi-supported candidates won in large numbers in the general elections held in Akhanda Bharat before independence, Reshme said that Jinnah, realising that Muslims cannot rule the country in Independent India, fought for partition of the country and succeeded in creating Pakistan then.

Citing Jinnah's example, Reshme said that the then Chief Minister Siddharamaiah, worried over losing power, tried to split Veerashaiva-Lingayats believing that such a split would help him in retaining power in the Assembly polls. But Siddharamaiah's gambit soon became a misadventure, with the Congress badly losing the May 2018 Assembly polls and giving rise to a JD(S)-Congress coalition Government with H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) of the JD(S) becoming the CM.

Highlighting the role of great leaders in uniting the country which had 524 kingdoms in pre-Independent India, he said that the then CM Siddharamaiah, ignoring the huge sacrifices made by our erstwhile rulers, chose to have a separate Kannada flag for the State in the name of Kannada language, which is nothing but ridiculous. But what shocked him (Reshme) more was the support extended by the so called intellectuals for the separate Kannada flag, he remarked.

Expressing disappointment over CM H.D. Kumaraswamy's recent remarks, Reshme said that the CM's controversial remarks had made the people of North Karnataka seethe with anger.

Lambasting Kumaraswamy for his casteist remarks, Reshme regretted that there has been a dearth in Veerashaiva-Lingayat leadership for over two decades, which could be seen in election after election in the last 25 years.

Asserting that Lingayat Community was a dominant Community in the State, he wondered how many of the Community Legislators, who were nearly 50 in number, have leadership qualities that can take the society along on the right track of development.

Referring to the economic status of the country, he said that the economic growth of the country is going on at a fast pace after the economic reforms were announced by the then Finance Minister Dr. Manmohan Singh in 1991.

Referring to the leadership of Dr. Manmohan Singh and Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the writer said that while former PM Manmohan Singh has maintained silence, PM Modi doing all the talk through his speeches and he (Reshme) would leave it to the people to decide on who is the best among the two.

Accusing the Opposition parties of attempting to divide the society only for the sake of defeating PM Modi, Reshme regretted the Media's support for such divisive politics of Opposition parties, who are trying all the tricks in the game to oust Modi in the coming Lok Sabha Polls.

Prof. S. Nataraj Boodalu, Dr. Basavaraj Sabarada, Hemalatha Vastrad and others were present during the programme.

Bid to extort money by waylaying car foiled

Thinker Dr. Dwarkanath catches extortionist, hands him over to N.R. Police

Mysuru, Aug.5- An incident of two persons waylaying a car in which progressive thinker, senior advocate and former President of Backward Classes Commission Dr. C.S. Dwarkanath was travelling along with his friends and trying to extort money from him has been reported on the Ring Road near Columbia Asia Hospital here yesterday morning.

Dr. Dwarkanath

The incident: Yesterday morning, Dr. Dwarkanath, along with his friends, was proceeding on the Outer Ring Road and when they neared Columbia Asia Hospital junction, two persons, who came on a bike waylaid the car. Dr. Dwarkanath, who stopped the car, asked them who they were and got out of the car.

The two persons reportedly told Dwarkanath that they were from Mahindra Finance company and told him that they have come to recover the loan amount of car and asked Dwarkanath to hand over the car.

As there was no loan taken for the car, Dwarkanath, who suspected something fishy, questioned the miscreants in a raised voice, resulting in one of them fleeing from the spot while Dwarkanath caught the other miscreant.

He then took the miscreant to N.R. Police Station and handed him over to the Police there and lodged a complaint against the miscreants besides urging the Police to investigate thoroughly and find out the person behind it.

Speaking to the media, Dr. Dwarkanath said that the incident took place when he along with his friends were proceeding near Columbia Asia Hospital on the Ring Road in his car and added that the two miscreants looked like anti-social elements. "This is an attempt to extort money in the name of loan recovery," he said and added that no finance company is authorised to waylay vehicles to recover loans. "This is illegal and the Police should take the matter seriously." he said.

WORD OF THE DAY

Bobowler

Pronunciation: bob-awle
Meaning: A large moth.
Origin: The word first appears in written sources in the 19th century, where it is usually written as two separate words. The earliest evidence we have found so far is from 1852 with reference to a tiger moth: The anterior portion of the body and head are clothed in a rich furlike wool of deep brown... which give it a somewhat owl-like aspect, which, together with its slow and heavy flight, obtain for it the name of Bob Owlers amongst the children in the country. The fact that 'owl' is recorded around the same time as a regional word for tiger moths, supports the assertion that the bird plays a part in the word's etymology. In comparison with other terms 'bobowler' does not occur with much frequency in written sources. J.R.R. Tolkien's use in the posthumously published novella Roverandom in which the Man-in-the-Moon observes: It's the black-velvet bob-owlers, flying all together in clouds, that I personally like least. However, as is the case with many regional words, although 'bobowler' is not often found in printed sources, it certainly was and is in common use in Birmingham and the surrounding areas.
Example: 'Either I just saw a bat or a real bobowler.'

THE ODD WORD

Gokotta

It is Swedish word that means waking up early to listen to the birds sing and to enjoy nature.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

The icing on the cake

Meaning: Something that makes a good situation even better or a bad situation even worse.

Origin: The phrase refers to the sweet, creamy toppings, called the icing, added to a cake to make it even better. It has been in use since the mid 1900s. "Icing on the cake" is used mostly in British English, while "frosting on the cake" is used mostly in American English. The icing on the cake has two meanings and they strangely happen to be opposites. This phrase can be used in a positive sense and a negative sense.
Example: The athlete received a gold medal and the icing on the cake was that he also received a sponsorship deal.
